Does anyone know what's become of David McBean's Hornresp website? Seems like it's dead.

Looks like it was offline for a while, but back in business now.

For a little historical perspective, check out the features available in Hornresp versions 3, 4 and 5:

New version of Hornresp v.3.10

Hornresp v.4.1 - New version online

New version Hornresp v.5.0 online!
