I've been buying myself a lot of it, putting some on my Santa list too.

Some from Amazon, some from Collector's Choice Music. Check out what's there!

Hey, thanks for the links and the information. It's been so long since I've seen vinyl (except for my personal collection) that I thought it faded away.

I went to their home officers (Salina, KS) when back home over christmas. The owner (Chad Kassem) found out I had lived in Louisiana and bent over backwards to assist (he is a native New Orleanian).

I listened to test pressing of Nat King Cole and was BLOWN AWAY! The sound was beyond awesome - to bad modern recordings suck so bad compared to those from the 1950's.

If you like the blues, check out Chad's Blues label. Great recordings by great musicians.
