I saw this over the weekend and enjoyed it immensely. I am very pleased with the way they did the movie, with the original Superman score by John Williams and with the overall continuity of the first 2 Superman movies. I heard a long time ago that they were discounting 3 and 4, so this was not a surprise, in fact when I first heard it, I was pleased because those last 2 really didn't fit into the mold anyway. I will speak more about this later once everyone has had a chance to see it, I don't want to give any spoilers right now. And yes, I will see it again!

I've been wanting to see that movie too. Thanks for the heads up!

I saw it twice already. If you liked the first 2 movies, you should enjoy this one.

Too much special effects. But i like the flying scenes though. The first two seem to me were better.
