Just picked up one of these for the fun of it. WAY TOO MUCH FUN OF IT!!! Works off WiFi and sets up in about 3 minutes. Listened to baroque from the Netherlands most of the night, and then switched over to arabic music from Palestine. Sound's not "audiophile" quality, but I'll give that up in an instant for such a variety of music.....C

Oh man! I gotta have one of those! Was it really expensive? I've already got Wi Fi set up in my house so that wouldn't be a problem. My wife thinks I spend too much money on "toys" now, she's going to be really upset when I come in with one of these.
