I just loved this movie. It's good to watch a "feel good" movie every so often, and this is definitely one of them. Based on a true story, it uplifts your mood and makes you laugh at the same time. A definite keeper!

It's an awesome movie. I swear I already saw this on the forum though. This is a really feel good movie. I don't like the Ravens though, so it was a tough one in the end for me.

Yeah, I thought I saw a post about this movie too. Went to look for it to reply, but couldn't find it. Maybe it was flagged as spam or something.

At any rate, I dug that movie. Two thumbs up!

Oh no spam! lol....

I wonder how many football players or really professional sports players go through this? With a bad upbringing but still make it into the NFL or NBA? I would think a lot of players are the same.

Unfortunately, my wife and I haven't seen this one yet, but will have to one day. I've seen interviews with the real family and the story is really a heartwarming one.

I wanted to see this when it was in theaters, but I always had my kids with me and they wanted to see something else. Now that it is on DVD, I can't wait to get and finally get to watch a movie that I have a feeling I will absolutely love.

Man I have to see this movie! I hear nothing but good things about it but is it a sappy chick flick? Don't get me wrong I like sappy and I like chick flicks but only in moderation .

It's an awesome movie. Not chick flick at all, but very sappy. I cried at least 3 times in the movie. Very touching but very good too! I say go rent it if you have not seen it yet.

I loved this movie. As soon as I saw the trailers for it I was hooked! The wife and I love watching "based on a true story" type of movies, so this hit the top of the list! We own it now and still watch it often.

This movie has quickly become the favorite in my house. My family probably watches it about once a week. This is just such a great story.

I loved the Blind Side and Sandra Bullock was wonderful. The movie was based in a town not far from me and I found I had to watch it. I am however a huge Sandra Bullock fan and have probably seen almost everything she ever played in.
