Subject: Live music
Posted by MWG on Mon, 16 Oct 2006 03:14:25 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I owed my wife because she went with me to a couple of R&R concerts and she's a died in the wool C&W fan. Well it was payback time and I went with her to see Clint Black.I was very impressed with his performance, the quality of his music and most of all his real person demeanor.He played most of his popular songs and some new ones. For the encore he played the drums on a version of Cream's White Room which brought the house down.He's a damn good harp player also and not bad on the guitar. He was witty and his jokes were clean which is a plus to me. He can imitate Willie Nelson like you wouldn't believe All in all if you ever have a chance to see him and the slightest interest in a good time go see him.Mike

Subject: Re: Live music
Posted by destiny on Thu, 02 Nov 2006 18:43:48 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

It's been a very long time since I've seen anyone in concert. I'm not surprised that Clint Black puts on a great show, though. I wish he'd play somewhere closeby and I might actually take some time off from work and go see him.