I went to see Amazing Grace the other night. I expected an inspirational movie, and it was that, but it also has a "Braveheart" feel. It's the true story of William Wilberforce, who lobbied against the slave trade in England. Also prominent in this story is William Pitt the Younger, who was England's youngest Prime Minister, and a friend of William Wilberforce. There's a whirlwind romance, so the movie is great for "date night" too. Amazing Grace is really a good movie, don't miss it.
