May I suggest going to see Joe Bonamassa on Oct. 6th at Cain's. Tickets are somewhat pricy at $26, but the show is worth it in my opinion. We saw him here in Amarillo a couple months or so ago and were completely floored. Think electric blues -- Stevie Ray, Eric Johnson, Gary Moore, Eric Gales, as well as some fantastic slide and dobro work. I know I will not miss his show again if it gets close.

Joe's new album "Sloe Gin" hit the stores today. Here is a link to hear some samplers off it.

Excellent, thanks for the heads up, Shane! Cain's is a great place to see a show. Lots of history there.

Sounds like it would be a great show. I wish I lived closer so I could go. Enjoy yourself.

Well, he's in the middle of the tour. Where are you from? Maybe he's coming close.
