Just plain excellent. Very well done on all fronts. Highly recommended.

I second that one. Good movie, definitely worth seeing.

I loved this movie too! It was awesome to watch. It made me laugh, cry and just plain and simple feel good. I let my daughter watch it with me and she loved it too (she is 13).

I agree, a good movie. I especially like the replaying of Michael Hedges' guitar songs. I've been listening to his stuff for a long time and he was definitely one who left us way too soon.

I haven't watched it. It seems like a romantic movie? Is it? I don't watch many romantic movies, but you guys have inspired me to watch it. I am particularly interested with the replaying of Michael Hedges' guitar songs.

Well it's about a boy who lives in an orphanage and then his life. He leaves the orphanage and gets involved with some bad people. It's a romantic movie at times, but its more about the boy.

It is a mix of romance, adventure, and real-life experiences. I have watched this movie and I was moved. I also seldom watch romance movies but this one is great to see even for guys like us.

I like the slapping of the guitar part. This was the first time I've seen such type of playing a guitar.

I saw this movie with my wife and my son a few years ago. My son really liked the movie but I wasn't too impressed.
