You may have noticed ART's forum layout has changed. Some of the forums are no longer online. None of the posts or threads were deleted, they were just merged into a smaller number of top-level forums. For example, Pro Speakers and Pro Sound were merged together with the Guitar Amp forums to form a single "Pro Sound" forum.

If you cannot find your forum or thread because it was moved, look for it in the forum that is most like it. Hopefully, this new layout is more convenient for everyone.
