I like the thriller type of movies the best. The greatest one I have seen in a while is Shutter Island. It has Leonardo Dicaprio and Ben Kingsley in it. It is about a U.S. Marshal that is looking into a disappearance of a person from a insane asylum, but then he starts having troubling visions. Creepy but good.

My girls saw it but I haven't had the chance to see it yet. I have heard that it is an excellent movie and as people say "A must see". I have full intentions of watching it soon as I can though.

I had my doubts at the beginning, but by the end of the movie I was hooked. I am not going to spoil it for anybody, but this movie is not what you think it is. I am always good at figuring out what is going to happen since it seems that most movies now a day are kind of recycled from the past. This one was something that I never expected. Definitely a must see.

I've this movie too and you won't be disappointed about the movie. The twist of the story is truly amazing. I've never seen such movies for quite a while now.

I haven't had a chance to see this movie yet. I am the only one in the family that will sit through this type of a movie, and I don't want to watch it by myself. I have heard great reviews, and can't wait.

This is by far one of my favorite thriller movies in a long time. I love Leonardo anyway! It was scary at times and just plain great. I watched it with my teenage daughter and her friends. They took me along for protection and support (movie theater) heck I had my eyes closed more than they did!
