Have a pair of B&C DE250's for sale. I was going to match my JBL 2226H (also for sale) with the DE250's to build some Pi4's. But other projects are needing priority right now.

The DE250 are brand new, taken out of the box to test & the screens removed.

One of the 2226H is nearly new while the other is slightly sun faded. Both work like new.

$195 shipped for the DE250.

$280 + shipping for the 2226H.

The JBL are still available though. Only the B&C are sold.
