Hi everyone. I know there have been many people look at the pics of Pi Speakers (factory and DIY), my DIY stuff, and LSAF pics on my Homestead site (well over 5000 peeks on each). I'm now hosting all of the Electronics pics on my new Smugmug site. It's a process under construction, so more will be added as I find time.

Here is the new link:

Thanks Wayne!!

It's a work in progress and will probably take me a good month or two to get all my pics up on it. I need to go thru and pick which ones I want, watermark the good ones, tweak some of the old ones, etc.... All the electronics and such are already on there as I just batch transferred them from homestead to smugmug.
