I'm watching this movie on FX right now. Forgot how good it is - quirky, touching, funny, one of those heart-touching movies masquerading as a comedy. Gotta get a copy to watch every so often.

Thanks for reminding me about this movie. At first I wasn't sure if I had seen it but reading the Amazon blurb reminded me I have. I think Jack Nicholson is one of, if not the best actors of the century. Great film.

I enjoyed what I saw of this movie. I watched a copy of it at a friend's house and it cut off right at the end! I still don't actually know how it ends.

An all-time favourite film of mine. Jack Nicholson's portrayal of a recluse suffering from OCD is both comical and moving. In addition Hans Zimmer's soundtrack is superb.
