I am tired of waiting for the 4th book to be turned into a movie (Twilight series). Does anyone know the date that the movie will be in theaters?

I can't wait for it!

I wish I could tell you for sure. Like you, I can't wait for it to come out too. I've been checking on Amazon everyday for the release date and all I get is a "to be announced". So we wait together. If I find out a more concrete release date I will post.

I don't think it's been announced yet, as I have been watching too. I do know that the last book will be made into 2 parts, so 1 part will come out and then we will probably have to wait another 6 months for the end.

Still nothing about the release date - I'm getting sick of waiting. I really can't wait to see it. I wonder how long we will have to wait for the second half of it to come out, since we have had to wait this long for the first half.
