Have you gone to see Harry Potter yet? I saw it last night and it was great!

I thought the sound was good too, although a few effects were a little over the top.

Are you a Harry Potter fan? It seems that the new movie is getting great reviews. I hear that a lot of people don't want the movies to end. However, they say that the will make only one more. How do you feel about the end of Harry Potter?

Yes, I saw the new Harry Potter with my hubby. The theater was so crowded that we had to sit in the handicapped seats on opposite ends of the theater!

I thought the movie was very good, but a little dark for kids.
