I found a Wards Airline radio in a auction it seems to be around the 50's but not sure. I cant find any information anywhere on this piece. Does anyone have any advise. Here's a picture that might help. I'm trying to determine it value if any.

I don't see the picture. Is there some place that you can take it in your area to get it looked at? I know there are a lot of antique dealers around me and they are super helpful.
