I would love to hear all about your favorite Wii games. We are looking for some suggestions on new games. Tell me the name and why you love it.

I need some new ones for my house and a couple for birthday gifts for 10 year old twins (boy and girl).

My favorite is the boxing game. I actually pretend I am fighting some of my worst enemies, or evils. And I know it might be a little on the boring side, but I also like bowling.

The new Zelda game is amazing. I haven't played much of it myself but I watch my friends play it quite a bit and the storyline is really fun to keep with up. You even turn into a dog during the game, which is pretty cool imo.

Mario Party 8 is a lot of fun as well. I love it because you get to interact with your friends and play the little mini-games. It keeps me entertained for hours.

My favorite is Wii Golf. I am truly not a golf person in real life, but for some reason I can't get enough of it on the screen.

The sports and fitness games are by far the most fun I've had in a long time with videogames. I haven't tried Zelda but look forward to seeing how it all works on the Wii, if I need to act like I'm swinging a sword or something.
