Last night, I hung out at my dad's house while he was jamming with his friend. It was so amazing to hear the live music. I forgot what a great musician my dad was! No wonder he used to be in so many bands back in the day. He played the bass and the drums beautifully!

Nice to hear such a moment with your dad! I like live music, too. It's so fortunate that there is a cafe/bar few steps from our house, and this cafe has live performers on weeknights. Going to this cafe is a quick escape when I get bored with my music collection at home.
