Playing the Wii on my new 46" LCD Samsung has been amazing. I had a friend come over today who I haven't seen in over 5 years and we had a blast playing Mario. We are going to start doing this on a weekly basis. It was the most fun I've had in a while!!

Wii on a 46" screen? Sweet! It must feel like you are actually there! I'd love to try golf or bowling or boxing on such a screen.

Wow, I wonder what a 46" screen would look like at my place. I'd love to play some 3D shoot 'em ups on a screen that size, with a top surround sound system as well! Gaming heaven!
