Wow, I had a great time building these. I put my build report on my blog, because I wanted to get it in front of folks who may not have heard of these speakers. Never-the-less, here is my build report. It relied heavily on other build reports on this site, so I appreciate everyone's help.

Like your build description in the blog VERY MUCH. You learned so much, which in turn will help guide others. And the speakers look great. Enjoy!
