I don't know if any of you have Comcast On Demand, or anything similar, but if you do, you really should be utilizing it! You can find a lot of news and events about things going on right in your local area. There is no reason for you to be stuck at home, bored. There's lots going on that you probably don't even know about. It's a great resource - and you should use it!

I have had a few other cable providers with their version of "on demand" but none were as good as Comcast! I used it all the time with my wacky work hours to catch up on my favorite shows. It also seems like they were really good at adding new shows, movies and genres which kept it fresh.
