It seems like there are lots of great bands on tour this year. I was not able to even get tickets to see my favorite - Queens Of the Stone Age. They sold out very quickly! We used to have a festival here in Atlanta, called Music Midtown. It would last for a whole weekend and we saw lots of groups there. There are rumors about it coming back in the fall. I am hoping it does! So, what is everybody else going to see?

My friend has persuaded me to go with her to the Harmony music festival in Santa Rosa next month. It's said to be a great line up, but all non traditional music. I'm keeping an open mind!

I'm going to a music festival on Monday. Panic at the Disco and Sick Puppies are supposed to be there, but I'm really just going because a friend in a local band will be playing as well.

Non-traditional? Hmmm. Well, I listen to all sorts of stuff, I may know some of it. Who-all is supposed to be playing there?
