I've got a pretty decent selection of vinyl 45 rpm records. In thinking about expanding that collection, does anyone have a good source online for vinyl? I have mostly been collecting from estate sales and flea markets.

Several companies have been re-releasing albums in vinyl, but I don't know about 45 RPM singles. If you're interested in 33 RPM albums, check Amazon:

Hi, I have several 100 45s and play them from time to time. Some are really quite well done and others well

I also do not know of a source for them, but I get a fair amount of LPs from Music Direct (on the Web) be sure to request a catalog the listings are extensive.

I frequent the used book stores and get lots of vinyl there as well. It is a bit of a risk as you really don't know the condition, but then the prices are in the $1 to $5 range. I've snagged some really good stuff for next to nothing. Some are pristine.
