Subject: Are There Other Events Like LSAF?

Hi Everyone, I really liked the LSAF and got a lot out of meeting all the folks. I just wonder if there are any other similar events out there. I'm not thinking of the major shows and such where the really "big" guys try to outdo each other, smaller friendly ones where everyone can exchange ideas are more what I am looking for. Preferably within a reasonable distance of Arizona. Locally, I am in a literal desert and there are zilch audio enthusiasts here.

Honestly, I don't think so. There are local club events in some of the bigger cities, but except for LSAF, nothing in between local clubs and the larger shows. LSAF spans the gap.

Hi, Anyone can display their projects. I have seen simple ones to full blown set ups. The only cost is the price of the room. You do need to register though. Also when you reserve a room or rooms you have to indicate that it is for the LSAF. Instructions for all this generally are available in the Spring. I am always glad to see both previous exhibitors and new folks. A good time is had by all.
