I haven't been to any real "official" concerts but I really hope to at some point. Have you been to any? Did you enjoy them? Are concerts really sort of a pain (weird drunk people, music is too loud, too crowded, etc.)? I would like to know people's opinions; however, I am aware that the experience depends on the artist/band and the crowd. I don't really mind having to deal with the crowd and the noise, I just want to watch the show, enjoy the music, and see my idol on stage (in the same room as me!).

I go to as many as I can. I just went to one over the weekend. Blair Crimins and The Hookers. It was New Orleans style ragtime music. Lots of fun!
