What do you think of AC/DC: awesome or overrated? I fall into the overrated camp. I like classic rock in general but I just can't get behind these guys.

I'll be honest - I like headbanging to AC/DC better than I do listening to the music. But they are classics, so I don't mind them - I'm just gonna say that there are others that I like better.

AC/DC is ok. Depending on my mood I may really enjoy them, or change the channel to something else, so I guess my opinion of them varies daily.

Depends which era. I love AC/DC with Bon, and the first one, Back in Black, with Brian. After that there was a song here and there, but I pretty much lost interest at that point. Although it sounds like three-chord music, Malcolm's rhythm playing is actually something to behold. Angus's solo timing is tough to replicate.
