I grew up with all the popular superhero comics- Spiderman, Superman, Captain America, and others.

It's good that they are bringing them all to life on the silver screen. However, I don't like it when sometimes they change the original concept of the story when they adapt it for the movies.

Any other superhero fans here?

I saw Captain America and loved it! Before going, I was worried it might be kinda cheezy but I have to admit it was one of my favorites of the genre.

I agree about Captain America, it was much better than I thought it would be. I was expecting something about as good as the Spider Man movies, which I thought were just decent. Did you see the trailer after the Captain America credits for The Avengers? For the first time in a while, I'm actually looking forward to a superhero movie.
