Has anyone seen "Necessary Roughness"? I actually do not live far from where they are filming it and I watched as they shot a couple of scenes. I haven't seen the program and I was wondering if it was any good?

I haven't yet watched it but I hear it's a pretty decent show. I keep meaning to record it on my DVR. I just haven't gotten around to it.

I haven't watched it yet but I heard it's pretty good. It's from USA Network so I have high expectations since most of my favorite television shows are by them (White Collar, Psych, Burn Notice, Suits).
