I love the show, "It's Always Sunny In Philadelphia"! The season premiered last week and I'll admit - it wasn't one of my favorite episodes, but still pretty funny. My favorite episode was where the question was asked, "So, what's your spaghetti policy?" Dee takes Charlie for a Spa day that turns into a Spa-ghetti day. Hilarious!!

I have never watched the show, It's Always Sunny in Philadelphia. I want to, but I just can not remember to dvr it. It seems funny and quirky, just the type of show I love.

I love this show. Charlie is my favorite character. I think my favorite episode so far has been the one where Day Man was introduced. I find myself singing that song to myself on occasion.
