What are a few good websites that I can use to buy tubes? I need to find a 12AY7 and 12AX7(easy) and EL82(easy again). I just want to know what is a good site to find all of these tubes so that I only have to pay 1 shipping charge and it's a reliable business. I would also like to have a good selection of each. Also, does anyone have any recomendations for brands--I have a Fender blues Jr. and a Maxxon ROD 881. I like playing all sorts of music. This may be the wrong forum for the later half of this post, but any input would be great. Thanks a lot in advance,Dan

Well, good, "standard" US source is "Antique Electronic Supply", see the link. I have luck with European/Belgium "Halfin" on-line shop:http://www.halfin.com/shop/Of course, there`re some ART sponsors, see the list.

I deal with Radio Electric Supply in Florida. They have always treated me quite well, and their inventory is quite expansive.cheers,Douglas
