I was thinking about going to see In Time this weekend. I really like the concept and the previews looked good, but I heard it got mediocre reviews. Has anyone had a chance to see this one?

I don't tend to put much faith in movie reviews by critics, mostly I have enjoyed things they swore were terrible. The trailers look good and the storyline is fresh. It may not be award winning but it looks like a good weekend pastime to me.

That's a good point, I've also liked movies that critics hated. One of my favorite movies of all time is Wrongfully Accused, a parody of The Fugitive. I can't understand why it got such bad reviews, to this day I think it's hilarious.
