I have to tell you that I have fallen in love with Maroon 5. I'm not sure if it's Adam Levine's voice or what but I love them. My favorite song right now is "My hearts a stereo" - I know it's the Gym Class Hero's but Adam Levine sings with them in it too. Anyone else a fan?

I'm not a huge fan of Maroon 5 but I do love that song. I also love Moves Like Jagger - I'm not sure if that is Maroon 5 or just Adam Levine with Christina Aguilera as back-up.

I've loved them since "This Love" which came out when I was still in high school. I love their musical style! My ultimate favorite Maroon 5 song is Nothing Lasts Forever. From their new album, I really enjoy "Never Gonna Leave This Bed".

love4music I think the title of the song is Stereo Hearts! That song was stuck in my head for MONTHS. xx

Stereo Hearts it is and I love the song. I think I love it because of all of the different voices throughout the song. I do love Maroon 5 too. I can't wait for The Voice to start back up.

Adam has a very attractive voice and it came out so nicely on Stereo Hearts. I can't wait for The voice to come back either. I started watching that because I found out Adam would be on it. It was so worth it. xx
