I am so excited to see "The Voice" is coming back on TV after the Superbowl! Did anyone watch the 1st season? I was not impressed with Christina but I loved CeLo, Blake and Adam. I can't wait for this season to start!

I watched the first season and loved it! I thought Christina was a bit gross too! Telling that Cowboy that she wanted him to take his pants off. I also think that she ought to put more clothes on too - kids watch the show.

I agree with my clothes! She needs to cover up her top! I must have missed the comment about the pants. It was so impressive hearing some of the contestants sing. I did not like Blake's pick in the end up he must have.
