Does anyone here know of a good digital watch that has an MP3 feature? I always forget my MP3 because it is so little but I always wear a watch. If these two are combined then I won't have problem with bringing my MP3.

Here is a link to a watch that also plays mp3s. I have no idea if it's any good, however, as I've never used a watch with an mp3 player.

It looks kind of hookey to me. I think my Sony MP3 player is smaller than it and it can hold over 400 hi-res MP3s and runs around 35 hours before it needs to be charged.

Check this one out. If you're into gadgets, it might be kinda cool:
Quad-band Watch - Mobile Phone - FM/MP3/MP4 - 2M Video Camera

This is a bit different than what you asked for but if you have an iPod Nano 5th gen, I think, they have some nice attachable watch straps that can turn your iPod into a watch xx
