Subject: Movies
Posted by timron on Tue, 24 Apr 2012 22:44:00 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

When you watch movies, do you prefer to watch them at home or at the movie theater?

Personally, I prefer to watch movies at home, because it's less expensive and more comfortable than watching it in a crowded, messy movie theater.

Subject: Re: Movies
Posted by iLoveiPod on Tue, 24 Apr 2012 23:17:54 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Like you, I would rather watch a movie at home, in the comfort and privacy of my own living room, than spend $20 to go see that same movie in a movie theater with popcorn and sticky soda residue on the floor. Not to mention all the self-absorbed people who have the nerve to answer their cell phone during the movie and carry on a conversation while everyone else is trying to get their money's worth out of the evening!

Subject: Re: Movies
Posted by LuvMartin on Wed, 25 Apr 2012 14:51:00 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

I honestly cannot remember the last time we went to the movie theater. The ticket cost is just way too high when you can buy the movie the day it comes out on Dvd for what it costs for two people to go see it.

Subject: Re: Movies
Posted by timron on Wed, 25 Apr 2012 19:54:48 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

LuvMartin wrote on Wed, 25 April 2012 09:51 The ticket cost is just way too high when you can buy the movie the day it comes out on Dvd for what it costs for two people to go see it.

I know what you mean. The last movie we saw in theaters cost us over $20 just for the tickets, then we probably doubled the bill buying soda and popcorn. :\ Even brand new Blu-Ray movies only cost about $25 these days, so you could buy the movie, a 2-liter bottle of soda and a 6-pack of popcorn for less than what it costs to go see the movie ONE TIME in the theater. As a bonus, now you own the movie - FOREVER.