My husband was laid off last week! I think we are both still kind of in shock. I am glad that he has more time to spend with the family (our kids are young & I think it is important), but I worry about how we are going to pay the bills. I am a homemaker with a part-time online job so I can't support us, and I have been out of the workforce for three years. I am going to try and go fulltime, and we are waiting to hear if he qualifies for unemployment. If he doesn't get that I don't know what we will do. Thanks for letting me vent guys.
