Is this the first zombie? I have never heard of any other creatures that tear and eat the flesh off of humans. In case you all think I am nuts, the story above is about a man in Florida who was shot while attacking and tearing the flesh off of another man's face.

I wonder if the cop's sidearm was loaded with these?

I don't but I am going to get some! Because I think they are cool not because I am expecting to have to kill any zombies. At least I'll be prepared if I need them though...if they will take down a zombie surely they will work on regular people too!

Hi, The next thing will be were wolves. My wife recently was watching one of the CSI shows and it had some in it. In any case I'm still waiting for Godzilla to come stomping through the neighborhood.

Creepy stuff! Did you see the story about the mom that ate her newborn's brain? What is wrong with people?!? My CCW doesn't have Zombie ammo in it, but I've got sense enough to aim for the head first!
