Any other Pandora fans here? I love my Pandora stations and generally let them stream on my computer while I am working. I see a lot of people on Facebook have Spotify but I haven't checked to see what that is exactly yet.

I used to use Pandora and liked it, but I haven't checked it out lately as I've been listening to "real" stations broadcasting online. At this point I'd probably just open a new account.

Hi, It's OK, but I usually get irritated when it says I can't skip any more songs. Then I just turn it off.
