Who is your favorite action movie actor? I know some people will probably think this is pretty cheesy, but my favorite is Steven Seagal. Steven Seagal always kicks the bad guys butt!

Yes, that is very cheesy! I like Bruce Willis myself. Jason Statham is pretty fun to watch as well...because of his acting skills of course.

I like Jason Statham for the same reason.

Bruce Willis and Steven Seagal are both good, but I'm going with Harrison Ford as my all-time favorite.

Bruce Willis is amazing! There has seldom been a time in which I watched his movies and was disappointed. Though, at the same time, I am very selective on the movies I choose to watch.

I have many favorite action actors! When I was a kid it was Bruce Willis and Sylvester Stallone. I now love Nicolas Cage. He is probably my favorite now. I don't know who Jason Statham is? What did he play in?

Does Jet Li count? I like old time hard core fist action, and unfortunately all of the movies today have nothing but explosions, glitter and gimmicks.
