Is anyone else a fan of the "Step Up" movies? I love watching them, and I could only ever dream of being able to dance like all of them! They are REALLY good. Some of the songs they use in their movies are pretty good and catchy as well.

I normally don't watch that kind of movie but I've become such a big fan of So You Think You Can Dance that I probably would enjoy watching Step Up. I doubt I'll see it in the theater though.
