Hi, I came back from jogging yesterday AM and heard a lot of squawking (by birds) in the back yard. Much to my surprise was an owl. It let me get within 10 feet and was not bothered by me or the 100's of birds that it annoyed.

Hi, I actually had an owl for a month, (small bird , fell from a tree) and fed him in the basement (see the picture) till he grew up and flew away.
