It seems like everyone keeps talking about how terrible the officiating has been in pro football this season. I agree that Monday's call was terrible, maybe they should replace those replacements. There must be a lot of pressure on these guys though, I'm sure it's harder than it looks. What are your thoughts on this situation?

Now that they're gone and we're well into the season, I'm sure people have a new-found appreciation for the regular refs. They have a pretty hard, fast paced job.
