Hi Everyone, is anyone besides me going to the RMAF?

I have way too much on my plate to attend RMAF. LSAF each year is my max. It lets people have a chance to demo my speakers in a venue besides my home, so it suits me just fine.

Absolutely! I'll be manning the Audio Note (UK) room as usual.

We'll have the CD4.1x cd player, M3 Phono pre, Tomei Kinsei (balanced 211) and Empress Silver (parallel SE 2A3) amps as well as the only pair of E/SEC Silver speakers in a slate veneer on the planet, which seem singularly well-suited to the ROCKY MTN audio fest.

Hope to have the TT2 Dlx / Arm 3 vs / IOI / S4 combo for vinyl. Waiting on one missing part for the external power supply.

Be sure and say Hi if you go!

Dave

I looked 'em up, and those are listed at $62,000.00 a pair. So you're entitled to bragging rights.

Whatever happened to those Bösendorfer-made AN/E speakers you were taking to the shows a few years back? I loved the finish on them. Guess that probably goes without saying but I had to say it anyway anyway.
