I just joined the gym with my wife last week, so I dug out my old MP3 player and now I'm at a loss as to what I could put on it to workout to. I need about an hour's worth of upbeat music. Any suggestions?

Try Lady Gaga, the Black Eyed Peas, Pink, and other pop musicians. A lot of 80s pop lends itself well to exercise sessions too, I've noticed.

If you have a Pandora account they have a work-out station. You could check that out and get some ideas of things to put on your Mp3 player.
