I recently moved to the Southwest MO area. Are there any audio DIYer's in Springfield, MO / Southwest Missouri? I am interested in meeting other DIYer's in the area and also help in possibly establish an Audiophile Club. Look forward to hearing from other members. Thanks Greg

I'm not in Missouri - But I'm close. I have two homes, one in Tulsa which is about three hours from you, and the other in Bentonville, which is just ten minutes south of the Missouri border.
