I have an Aleph 30, Class-A Single-Ended that I dearly love. Not much to look at, but build and sound quality are first rate! Older Alephs show up in EBay or places like Audio Classics. The Aleph 30 is on it's way out, but I belive it's still available thru Audio Video Logic.

There sure are a lot of people that rave about that amp. I'll have to give one a listen.
