Which website out there has the best prices for streaming and/or downloading movies? We were at Wal Mart earlier today shopping for some new movies to watch, but I'm not paying $15 for ONE movie!

Well, I suppose the best prices are for pirated movies. However, on the legitimate side, I think we are going to try Amazon Prime and see how that works out.

Amazon Prime is supposed to be like Netflix, right? How much does it cost? Maybe we'll give it a try too; I don't really want to download pirated movies and risk getting into legal trouble!

Yes, Amazon Prime is like Netflix, but you also get free 2 day shipping, so benefits extend beyond streaming movies. I'm not sure how much it is.

Amazon Prime is $80 per year, so I don't think it's too terrible. It works out to less than $7 per month. I haven't explored the movies too much yet, but there are some decent shows for my kids.

I think we can manage $80/year for the Prime membership. We have been ordering from Amazon a lot here recently, so it would be nice to have the 2-day shipping in addition to the streaming content.
