I am going on a date this Sunday. We are most likely going to be seeing Warm Bodies. I've never too crazy about zombie movies so I'm just a little skeptical. Has anyone seen this movie yet? Is it any good?

Good luck on your date. As for the movie, I am wary, but that is probably because I don't care for zombie movies either. I just don't get the appeal.

We had weather stuff preventing us from going to the movies on Sunday, so we are planning on going this weekend sometime. Now, we are battling between watching Warm Bodies and Beautiful Creatures.
