So, what happened that made a lot of Atlanta radio stations shut down? I really miss hearing Mara Davis's "McDonald's Daily Cheese". Plus, there are no more stations in Atlanta that play alternative music.

Not from Atlanta, nor do I have any clue what's going on with the stations. Just wanted to say that it's hard to find alternative music on the radio anywhere. Maybe you should try Pandora or something like that.

Best of luck,

Bert
